GIVE I. A. C. A SHUT-OUT WIN

Ball Tossers from Richmond Were Outclassed Yesterday Afternoon by the Score of 6 to 0, and They Knew It.

The Italian Athletics registered another shut-out yesterday afternoon at Goddard campus, by sewing up the Richmond game with a 6 to 0 arrangement of the figures. The contest started out in big league style, momentarily giving the fans a vision of the halcyon days of the old Northern league. Olsini was in the points for the locals, and for the first three innings only nine of the visiting willow swingers faced him.

L. Bressor occupied the mound for Richmond and had the Italians guessing for a time. Heavy hitting, however, in three innings put the game on congealed water for the locals, and after that their opponents were evidently willing to be satisfied with anything but a shut-out. But steady work in the box prevented them from scoring, and they left the ground with nothing but a collection of goose-eggs to show for their afternoon's efforts.

The Italians pushed their first runs across the rubber in the fifth, when Calcasini, Francesco and Olsini landed on the pill for two sacks each. Calcasini's nearly went over the center field back, while the two last ones described a rainbow over the left fielder's head. Tally No. 4 followed in the sixth. With one man down, Maberini was safe at first on F. Bressor's error, reaching second when Tonazzi was an easy out, F. Bressor to Squires, "Pete" crossed the pan when Calcasini sent a two-bagger over into the left garden. The last pair came in the seventh, when three two-baggers by Davidi, Jacamuzzi and Wisharti brought the score up to six.

Olsini allowed the visitors a look-in on the tallying in the fourth, when he issued a pass to Lane, hit Berry and granted F. Bressor a ticket to second on a swat into left. Again in the eighth he did the "charity" act by filling first and third with tenants, only to fan three of the Richmond batters, who essayed to bring them to the plate.

In a nut shell, if Bressor had maintained the speed which he displayed in the opening rounds, and if the Italians had not been so free with the two-sackers, the dope-sheet might have read differently. The score—

Summary: Bases on balls, off Bressor.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this advertisement in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

Notes on the Game.

Wisharti made a pretty stop of Murphy's swift grounder in the second.

Rumor would have it that Bressor concealed a small mirror in his glove while in the box.

Maberini robbed Kennedy of what seemed like a safe one in the third round.

Shades of Dr. Cook! Did anybody there see Fraser?

In batting averages to date, Weferi leads with .330, while Broggi and Francesco follow in order with .308 and .307.

Wisharti's three-bagger was a near-home run.

Berry picked a hard foul in the fifth.

"Waco" Tonazzi furnished a stellar sensation in the sixth, when he snatched Squire's low fly out of the atmosphere.

Wisharti pilfered two sacks on his journey to third in the second.

Lane, the orange-sweatered one, fanned three times.

Jacuzzi, the Milford, Mass., infielder, took Wisharti's place at short when the latter replaced Rossini, who is suffering from a sore hand.

Woodville, N. H., will clash with the locals Saturday at Rangers' field.

Liamond Scintillations.

Second baseman Andy Lawrence of the Brooklyn (New England league) team has been released at his own request. Several weeks ago he wrenched his side at New Bedford and since that time has been unable to do any heavy work.

Larry McLean is doing some fast work for Cincinnati. His friends say that he would be equally as successful in the squared circle. His name has been frequently mentioned in connection with the hunt for a white man to defeat Jack Johnson. The Tar Baby, however, advises Larry to remain on the diamond.

President Farrell of the Highlanders will bring suit against a Chicago newspaper, which charged him with operating a signal tipping bureau near the New York grounds.

Connie Mack has picked up a promising youngster in "Al" Bonner, an 18-year-old Idaho boy, who will report to the Athletics some time next month.

Charlie Herzog, who was suspended from the Orioles a month ago because of a dispute with manager Lake, has been reinstated and is now filling his old position at third.

Bennington nosed out a 6 to 5 victory from Pittsfield Tuesday. Weiss officiated in the box, with Burrington behind the bat.

Bert Daniels, the young New York American outfielder, was a cheap investment. With catcher Pausie, he was secured from the Atlanta Tri-state league club for $250. A cash offer of $10,000 for the boy was recently refused by President Farrell.

Fitcher McIntyre of the Lynn New England team has been suspended because he threw a straight ball over the plate Saturday, when he was signalled to throw a wide one. Several other teams in the league are after his services, it is said.

Jim Vaughn, the Highlander pitcher, is still suffering from the railroad accident of last week. He is obliged to support himself with a cane.

Critics say that, with the exception of Amos Rusie, Johnson of the Senators is the speediest man who ever twirled a baseball.

Most Every Fellow Likes Nice Shirts

Just think, now, isn't it refreshing to have a shirt that is just a little better than the ordinary? Fits you a little better perhaps—not too tight; not too loose—just right to be comfortable. Don't seem so very important sometimes when you buy the shirt, but when you wear it—it counts.

And the looks—of course you want it to look well—warm days, especially, when you have your coat off.

Nice lot of shirts we have here—made to fit you—and every kind of stripe, figure and plain you ever dreamed of. Any price, but some especially good values at $1.50.

NEW NATIONAL LABOR UNION.

Moyer Talks of Affiliating Western Federation With United Mine Workers.

Denver, Col., Aug. 4.—Intimation of the forming of a new labor union of national scope, comprising the Western Federation of Miners, the United Mine Workers of America, and the steel workers of the country, was given by President Charles H. Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners Tuesday.

The formation of such a union was presented as an alternative of affiliation with the American Federation of Labor in case that organization declines to delegate to the western federation the authority demanded. The most important of these demands is that all men employed about metalliferous mines be placed under the jurisdiction of the western federation.

In a resolution of the executive committee of the miners' organization was empowered to meet with the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor and to complete the details necessary to affiliation with the latter body.

President Moyer and John C. Williams of Grass Valley, Cal., were named as delegates to the meeting of the American federation.

HURT IN AIRSHIP TEST.

Aviator Was Trying Stability Device; Fifty-foot Drop.

New York, Aug. 4.—Dr. H. Walden, an amateur aviator, was seriously hurt yesterday at Garden City, L. I., while testing a new aeroplane. Dr. Walden was circling the aviation field, when something went wrong with the aeroplane and it dropped 50 feet to the ground like a plummet.

The doctor was unconscious when taken from the wrecked monoplane and was hurried to the hospital. He has been experimenting with a new stability device and was trying it on a monoplane, which does not glide as far as a biplane when the motor power ceases. The aviator was flying half an hour, when something went wrong.

NEW YORK RACING TO END.

Jockey Club Has Decided to Abandon Running Events by Sept. 1.

New York, Aug. 4.—While official confirmation is lacking, it was said on good authority that the board of stewards of the Jockey club has practically decided to end racing in the state of New York by September 1. To carry out this program, the last dates in the Coney Island Jockey club at Sheepshead bay will be transferred to Saratoga, to be run on extra days.

WESTWARD WINS AGAIN

Kaiser's Cup Goes to American Schooner

DEFEATS THE GERMANIA

Cicely and Susanna—Winner Was Penalized at the Start—Was Forced to Cross the Line a Second Time.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 4.—The American schooner Westward, owned by A. S. Cochran of New York, started with the yacht Germania, Cicely and Susanna in the race for the Kaiser's cup yesterday morning over a course forty-seven miles. The breeze was light and all the contestants set every yard of canvas which would draw.

The American boat which, on its first appearance under racing colors in England, administered a decisive beating to the same yacht, crossed the line too early under an over eager skipper and was forced to put about and recross the line behind its opponents. Sailing with remarkable speed, however, the Westward soon made up its disadvantage, walked through the fleet and at the end of an hour and a half of racing held her usual lead. Two minutes in front of Germania, which allowed Westward a handicap of six minutes and sixteen seconds.

Westward won the race, finishing 62 seconds in front of Germania. Cicely was third.

Germania arrived flying the protest flag, indicating a challenge of the result of the race. The reason for the protest is not yet known.

HORSE TROUBLES.

Inflammation of the Kidneys.

This trouble may be acute or chronic. It is occasioned by varying causes. This heart disease may reflect upon the kidneys by throwing the blood pressure onto the veins of the kidneys; bladder and urethra may extend to the inflammation of the kidneys, eating of hay or fodder or irritating plants, stone in the bladder, severe exposure to cold or wet, sprains of the loins and blows or injury; diseases of liver and lungs may seriously affect the kidneys.

The symptoms are manifested by stiffness of the back, with a straddling gait in moving; much difficulty in getting down or up; walking in a circle; perhaps growling; loins arched and flanks tucked up. Frequently looks back to sides or flank as in colic; tenderness to loins; urine in small quantities and frequently discolored or perhaps containing blood or pus, according to circumstances; the legs swell all the way from the foot upward; the belly and chest often swell; becoming chronic, the urine shows casts and is then a constitutional condition, with which may be associated atrophy, softening, enlargement, etc.; the skin becomes unhealthy; scurf; the animal loses flesh and strength; the pallor of the nose and eyes is particularly noticeable.

The treatment for kidney inflammation in the acute form should consist first in removing the known cause. If ever is prevalent, it should be reduced by a physician to relieve the bowels. Warm salt and sufficient blankets. Copious draughts of flaxseed tea or other mucilaginous drinks. Injections of the same may be given blood warm; mustard or a stimulating liniment to the loins and sweat the loins with blankets a hot water. Mashes and a laxative diet with rest for some days.

In the chronic form, the treatment is more uncertain. Of course, the general condition must be improved. The cause or disease responsible for the condition should be rectified and the same course followed as suggested in the acute form. The treatment should be along the same lines, but more extensive and much more time allowed for any improvement to make itself manifest.

The kidneys are subject to tumors, which give similar symptoms of inflammation, but there is no way to recognize them during life.

And again the kidney may be affected by the bladder worm or round worm. If these could only be discovered by riding in the urine the hooklet of the worm, or the egg or sometimes the entire worm last mentioned.

Eddie Karger of the Bostonians has so far made the best record for the southpaws in the American league this season, with Ed Plank of the Athletics, Jim Vaughn of New York, Ed Killian of Detroit and Krause of the Athletics following in the order named.

Of the National league southpaws Kreh of Chicago, Webb of Pittsburgh, Burns of Cincinnati, Pfeister of Chicago and Lush of St. Louis have won more than half of their games. Witte of New York, Rucker of Brooklyn and Foxen of Philadelphia have so far had an even break.

While it is generally admitted that left hand pitchers have something on men who hit from the south side of the plate, the rule is not universal. Willie Keeler could always hit a southpaw better than a right hander. Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Easterly and Eddie Collins, left handers who are well up in the American league batting records, are all good against southpaws.

Clark's a Brainy Docket. Tom Clarke of the Cincinnati Reds is a crackjack catcher. His handling of pitchers is superb. When he's working the twirlers give few bases on balls.

SOUTHPAWS ARE IN GREAT DEMAND

WANTED.—Crack left hand pitchers in the American league; good pay, short hours and a steady position for those who fill the bill.

If any one happens to know where a good southpaw twirler is located, who can make good in fast company, just let him give the information to some manager in Ban Johnson's circuit. There is a craze for left hand twirlers among big league handlers.

WILKES, GIANT'S LEFT HANDER, WHO IS IN GOOD FORM.

Just now, but this applies particularly to the men who lead the American league teams.

The southpaws in the American and National leagues are having a good year with the boxmen of the Ban Johnson organization, having slightly the best of it. Whether it is because the American leaguers have more puzzling curves or whether the National batters are better against left handers is a question for argument.

At any rate, the recent sensational sale by Manager Jack Dunn of the Baltimore club of Lefty Russell to Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics for $12,000 after spirited bidding, in which Manager McGraw of the Giants and Fred Clarke of the Pirates took part, shows the market value of promising southpaws.

The American league magnates are being panned for allowing Southpaw Bill Burns, formerly of Washington and Chicago, to slip into the National league. These questions are being frequently asked: Why did Connorsky release Pitcher Bill Burns? Why did the other American league clubs waive claim to a pitcher who has since been very successful for Cincinnati?

The reason given is that, while Burns is a good pitcher, he is said to believe himself a privileged character. He has wealthy parents and doesn't have to work for a living. For that reason he couldn't see any use in taking part in morning practice. As Connorsky is a great believer in discipline, he could not allow Burns to shake the morning sessions. As a result he let him go to Cincinnati.

PRIEST IS HOST OF ROOSEVELT

Former President Guest of Fr. Curran Over

NIGHT IN WILKESBARRE

Mitchell Points Out Views—Visitor Is Interested in Route of Sullivan's March Against the Indians.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 4.—Theodore Roosevelt, who reached this city at midnight from Scranton and was the guest during the night of Rev. J. J. Curran, pastor of the Holy Saviour Catholic church, got up early yesterday and made himself at home on the big porch which surrounds the priest's parochial residence. He read the papers and commented on the beautiful mountain scenery, a good view of which could be had from the porch.

The news that the former president would be the guest of Fr. Curran, became known Tuesday night, and early yesterday morning groups of people gathered about the residence. John Mitchell, who is also the guest of Fr. Curran, and who spent many months in Wilkes-Barre while directing the big miners' strike of 1902, pointed out to Mr. Roosevelt the places of interest in the Wyoming valley.

The visitor was particularly interested in the route Gen. Sullivan traversed when he came to the rescue of the white settlers of the Wyoming valley when they were besieged by the Indians over a century and a quarter ago. Sullivan's army marched close by where Mr. Roosevelt slept Tuesday night.

Mr. Roosevelt, John Mitchell, Lawrence Abbott and about 40 priests of the anthracite region were Fr. Curran's guests at luncheon at 1 p. m. At 4 o'clock the ex-president and party left in automobiles for Bear Creek to be the guests of Albert Lewis, the millionaire lumber king, at dinner.

Mr. Roosevelt started out at 10 o'clock yesterday morning to spend the day among the miners in the Wyoming valley. With John Mitchell and Fr. Curran, he drove up the valley headed for Pittston, 10 miles away. The day's itinerary included stops at Pittston, Kingston, Plymouth and Nanticoke, the latter three places all small mining towns between Wilkes-Barre and Pittston.

Before the party started out, Col. Roosevelt had a long talk in the rectory with Mr. Mitchell and Fr. Curran. He said later that his two friends had given much valuable information to him in the investigation he is carrying on into the social life of the people of the mining country.
